

NEWS

Named one of Canada's Top 100 Small & Medium Employers

April 16, 2018

McLeod Law is honoured to be named one of Canada's Top 100 Small and Medium Employers for a second year in a row. This award is a tribute to our people who make our firm a great place to work and grow, and to our forward-thinking human resources policies.

The award selection process takes several factors into consideration from work environment, health, financial and family benefits, community involvement, to training and development and more.

Read the online feature in The Globe and Mail here.

Learn more about joining our team here!