Administrative & Regulatory

There are hundreds of administrative and regulatory bodies in Alberta and Canada. These bodies and tribunals can often interpret law and powers equal to (or exceeding) the power of our courts. Their decisions can have a profound effect on your livelihood and the success of your business.

Our group of 14 lawyers focuses exclusively on litigation and dispute resolution. We can advocate for you in a broad range of administrative and regulatory matters, including:

- Administrative and regulatory compliance
- Regulatory hearings
- Government administration
- Judicial review applications

Lawyers who pick up the phone

You need a responsive lawyer who focuses on your needs and goals. Someone who's available to talk to you and will reply to emails quickly. We take a practical approach to action and settlement and use plain language—not legal jargon.

More economical litigation

We start by weighing costs against benefits and continue to do this at every step of the process. We assign tasks to the right people at the right seniority and skill levels to stay efficient and avoid unnecessary costs. You'll also benefit from our favourable hourly fee structure.

Accessing resources that can help

When additional resources are needed, we can leverage the knowledge of lawyers in McLeod Law's other practice groups. If you have legal needs outside of Alberta, we can connect you to qualified and respected law firms in other provinces and countries through the TAGLaw global network.
