Estate Administration

Our dedicated and experienced lawyers can guide you through estate administration issues. We'll help you understand—in simple terms—what transferring wealth to the next generation means legally. We also help personal representatives carry out estate administration duties given to them by a loved one.

We'll meet with you at the beginning to make sure we fully understand your needs and give you a fee range. A refined, streamlined process allows us to be efficient—and cost-effective—so we can focus our attention where it's needed most.

If issues arise, we will help you find a solution. Our goal is to resolve your dispute as quickly and amicably as possible.

Our services include:

- Advising personal representatives and beneficiaries in estate administration
- Applying for grants
- Trust fund management
- Passing of accounts
- Discovery of assets and missing beneficiaries
- Administration of mines and mineral interests
- Resealing grant applications

Lawyers who pick up the phone

You need a lawyer who takes the time to understand your situation and goals. Someone who is available to talk to you and will reply to emails quickly. You can decide how you prefer to communicate with us, and we'll make sure you get the same level of service throughout the process.

Adding complicated legal jargon to an already complex situation isn't helpful. We always take the time to explain things and communicate in plain English.

Access to more resources

We have strong relationships with other professionals, like accountants and financial advisors, and will manage and coordinate them for you when needed.

When additional resources are required, we can leverage the knowledge of our Real Estate, Business, and Family Law groups.
