

PUBLICATION

The importance of succession planning

Chad R. Johnson
Roy Klassen, TEP, K.C.

March 1, 2019

Life can throw you curve balls when you least expect them. As a business owner or shareholder, life's issues can have a huge impact on running a successful operation. This is why it is imperative to put measures into place to protect yourself and your company to weather any storm.

In the Calgary Construction Association's 75th anniversary issue of the Constructor magazine is an article on 'The importance of succession planning' by Aaron Bickman, Roy Klassen and Chad Johnson. They outline what succession planning involves from a legal perspective.

Read the full article here.