

Asher M. Macdonald

Associate

403.873.3739

amacdonald@mcleod-law.com

ASSISTANT

Marsha MacDougall

403.254.3697 mmacdougall@mcleod-law.com

PRACTICE AREAS

Family Law

Child & Spousal Support

Division of Property

Mediation, Arbitration,
Litigation

Cohabitation & Prenuptial
Agreements

Parenting & Custody

I ease the fear and doubt—and distill the negativity—from separation and divorce.

Asher works only in family law and focuses on finding timely and cost-effective resolutions in difficult situations. He believes guiding clients through risks, opportunities, and settlement options is necessary for positive results. He views lawyers as peacemakers and discourages litigation, but court is sometimes the right choice, and he is a skilled advocate.

Education

2013 University of Richmond, Virginia, JD

2007 Mount Royal College, BIBSCM

Admissions

2015 Alberta

2013 Virginia

Experience

Litigation

- Appeared at all levels of Court in Alberta (Provincial, Queen's Bench, Appeal)
- Appears often in Morning Chambers to argue interim matters related to parenting and support

Mediation and Arbitration

- 90% of client files end up in a mediated setting and with a settlement
- Multiple arbitrations in 2017 over issues of mobility
- Five-day arbitration in 2018 over parenting

Recognition

HONOURS AND AWARDS

- Order of Barristers, US National Honours Society, 2013
- National Champion, Judge John R. Brown National Admiralty Moot Court Competition, 2013
- Best Brief Award, Maritime Law Association of the United States, 2013
- Super-Regional Finalist, American Bar Association National Appellate Advocacy Competition, 2013
- Region IV Finalist, New York City Bar National Moot Court Competition, 2012
- Moot Court President, University of Richmond School of Law, 2011
- Champion, University of Richmond School of Law Barnett 1L Moot Court Competition, 2011

Memberships

- Calgary Bar Association
- Canadian Bar Association
- Law Society of Alberta
- Virginia State Bar