My clients deserve a lawyer who will make sure their real estate deals are as seamless as possible.

Christine is head of the Residential Real Estate group at McLeod Law. With Christine as your lawyer, you will have someone who understands that a real estate transaction is often the most significant financial endeavour you may be involved in during your lifetime. She has over 15 years of experience practicing exclusively in residential real estate. She's dedicated to ensuring your transaction is as simple and seamless as possible, keeping you informed throughout the process.
