OFFICE: DOWNTOWN

Evan joined McLeod Law as an Articling Student after graduating from the University of Calgary, Faculty of Law in 2022. Throughout all three years of law school, Evan acted as a volunteer caseworker with Student Legal Assistance, providing low income populations with legal information and representation in criminal and family law matters. Before joining McLeod Law, Evan gained experience working as a summer law student with the Alberta Securities Commission in their Market Regulation division.

Outside of the office, Evan can usually be found playing board games, attending live music events, or trying new recipes in the kitchen.
