I aim to create an enjoyable, productive workplace where lawyers and staff excel in their roles.

Karryn joined McLeod Law in 2012 and led the firm in receiving the award for Canada's Top Small & Medium Employers for two consecutive years. She spent most of her career with law firms in the Calgary area but was also a human resources manager in the hospitality industry. Her areas of responsibility include policy and procedure development, HR planning, employee relations, compensation planning, and training and development.

Karryn enjoys spending time in the mountains, hiking, swimming, and biking.
