I believe in cost-benefit analysis so the most cost-effective outcome is achieved for my clients' cases.

Shane is a partner in the Litigation & Dispute Resolution group where he advises clients—individuals, small businesses, and corporations—on litigation and contractual issues, including:

- corporate litigation
- employment agreements and contract negotiation
- severance package determination and review
- construction contracts and defects
- holdbacks and builders' liens
- debt recovery, bankruptcy, and insolvency
- regulatory applications

He has appeared before all levels of court in Alberta and has been involved in mediation and arbitration panels, including the Alberta New Home Warranty and the Natural Resources Conservation Board.

Shane is one of McLeod Law's representatives of the Entrepreneurs' Organization, Calgary chapter—as the official legal partner. EO Calgary is an exclusive peer-to-peer network of 130+ influential business owners and acts as a catalyst for entrepreneurs to learn and grow, and enhance their success in business and beyond.

Shane is on McLeod Law's Executive Committee and was also the head of the firm's Commercial Litigation & Dispute Resolution group for 10 years prior.
