Honest and clear two-way communication is the backbone of a solid lawyer-client relationship

Torri is an associate in the Wills, Estates and Trusts department. Her practice includes estate planning, estate administration, estate dispute resolution, and guardianship and trusteeship matters. Torri works closely with senior counsel in her department to ensure clients are best served based on their needs.

Torri works with clients to develop their unique estate planning needs to reflect their intentions, ensuring that their wishes are understood and conveyed in their planning documents to provide for a smooth transition for their loved ones in difficult times. She also assists with the estate administration process, including the application for Grant of Probate or Administration. Torri is well-versed in the area of Adult Guardianship and Trusteeship applications and also assists with dispute resolution, working closely with clients to resolve issues through challenging times.

Outside of the office, Torri enjoys spending time in the mountains and at the hockey rink.
