Directors' Circle Series

May 25, 2017

Directors' of private companies are welcome to attend our upcoming session of the Directors' Circle Series. The series provides an exclusive forum to learn key insights pertaining to directors' responsibilities and meet with other directors who share similar objectives and challenges.

In this session, we welcome a special guest speaker, Tom Hanson, United States Commercial Attaché for Western Canada. Tom will discuss how the U.S. Department of Commerce's International Trade Administration assists Canadian companies from all industries, to find U.S. trading partners. In addition, he will discuss strategies for Canadian companies considering expanding into the U.S.
