

NEWS

McLeod Law honours former partner and friend with new scholarship in law

May 1, 2019

In honour of Barry Steinfeld, our friend and colleague, McLeod Law has created an endowment fund for the Barry Steinfeld Scholarship in Law. The scholarship was established in 2018 by one of his mentees, a true reflection of Barry's mentorship of junior lawyers. The scholarship is in recognition of Barry, his career, his mentorship, and his commitment to the firm and his clients.

One student from the University of Calgary's Faculty of Law will be awarded the scholarship every year. The scholarship is supported through an endowment of $20,000 made by McLeod Law.

Barry valued human rights, mentorship and the client. He was a friend and an advocate to many. We know that Barry meant a lot to many people. You are welcome to contribute to the endowment here.