

NEWS

McLeod Law is recognized in Chambers Canada 2019 Guide

October 29, 2018

McLeod Law is pleased to announce that it has officially been Ranked in Chambers Canada 2019 as “Highly Regarded Corporate/Commercial”, in Alberta.

What the team is known for:

Respected Calgary firm with experience handling mid-market commercial transactions. Advises clients in the oil and gas and power sectors on shareholder agreements, corporate disposals and restructurings, commercial leasing and corporate governance. Further proficiency acting for land developers, automotive companies and healthcare providers. Is also active in the construction, financial services and real estate sectors.

Strengths:

Sources are impressed with the team's "responsiveness and attention to detail."

Notable practitioners:

Neil Hutton, Robert Fooks

To learn more about Chambers and Partners, and their research methodology to rank law firms and lawyers please visit chambers.com.