

NEWS

McLeod Law Welcomes Anne Rupcich to the Partnership

January 20, 2026

We are delighted to announce the promotion of Anne Rupcich to the McLeod Law partnership.

Anne has practiced law since 2017 and brings significant experience in litigation and dispute resolution, now focusing her practice exclusively on Family Law. Her background representing clients on both sides of complex disputes has shaped a strategic, balanced approach grounded in strong judgment, risk assessment, and effective negotiation.

Known for her thorough preparation and clear communication, Anne delivers practical, forward-looking solutions while maintaining a steady focus on her clients' long-term interests. Her promotion reflects her disciplined advocacy, professionalism, and ongoing commitment to guiding clients through some of life's most challenging legal matters.

Please join us in congratulating Anne on this well-deserved milestone. We look forward to her continued impact as a member of the McLeod Law partnership.