

NEWS

McLeod Law Welcomes New Partners

January 5, 2023

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Daniel MacAulay and Kristy Williams to the McLeod Law partnership. Daniel and Kristy are both exceptional lawyers dedicated to outstanding client service, making them the perfect addition to the partnership.

Daniel acts for buyers and sellers of various residential and retail properties, as well as business owners, lenders, borrowers, landlords, tenants, and commercial developers advising on deal structuring, drafting, review, negotiation, and conveyancing in real estate law.

Kristy advocates for individuals who have sustained injury due to another's fault or negligence. Her extensive academic background in medical sciences has been a tremendous asset to her clients. She can decipher even the most complicated medical report and uses this knowledge to guide her clients through the litigation process.

Congratulations Daniel and Kristy!