

NEWS

Welcome to our 2019/2020 Students

July 15, 2019

We are pleased to announce our new articling students Dan Kaplan, Kay Decker and MacKenzie Dundas. To learn more about our students, please click here.

MacKenzie joins us from the University of Calgary and has an interest in the Business Law practice which stems from her experience in regulatory, securities and commercial transactions.

Dan graduated from Bond University in Queensland Australia and has a background in hospitality management.

Kay joins us from the University of Ottawa where she has completed her law degree in English Common Law.

To learn more about articling at McLeod Law please click here.