Small Business Calgary Expo: Raising Capital in the Private Market

September 20, 2018

The Calgary Chamber Small Business Week is having their Small Business Calgary Expo on October 18, 2018. Neil Hutton, Lead of the Securities & Capital Markets group, is leading an Academy Workshop on raising capital in the private market. As a private company, one of your top concerns is capital and how to raise it to take your enterprise to the next step. Neil will educate you on how to raise capital in the private market and meet the requirements for compliance with securities regulations and understand the advantages of using prospectus exemptions.

In this workshop you will learn how to:

- Recognize qualified investors.
- Disclose your investment opportunity fairly.
- Navigate the regulatory system.
- Avoid problems with the Alberta Securities Commission.

Register here to get your tickets to the Expo.
