Soul of the Next Economy Conference

November 14, 2019

Our own, Brent Cooper will be facilitating this year's Soul of the Next Economy's Executive Roundtable, bringing together diverse leaders in the business community with non-profit sectors, government, indigenous communities and educational institutions to discuss how we can find opportunities in difficult times and the role business has in enhancing communities both locally and globally.

The Soul of the Next Economy | November 14 & 15, 2019 | Ambrose University

Brent is Vice-Chair of the Board of the Calgary Chamber and will be the Chair in January 1, 2020.

This Soul of the Next Economy is a forum for business leaders, the non-profit sector, government and educational institutions in various sectors — to communicate and collaborate in order to positively impact our local economy and society.
