

PUBLICATION

What Boards of Directors Need to Know about Changes to IFRS 9

Andrew Neil Hutton

June 22, 2017

Neil Hutton of our Securities & Capital Markets group outlines the legal requirements a Mortgage Investment Corporation ("MIC") should follow in order to declare a dividend.

This is part of a co-authored publication with BDO Canada for the private lending industry to ensure directors and Investment Fund Managers are up-to-speed on the impending changes to accounting standards that will significantly change the way private MICs monitor for potential losses within their portfolio.

To download the full publication please click here.