Parenting & Custody

Free Initial Consultation

Your children are the most important part of your family. Where will they live following your separation? How will decisions be made regarding their upbringing? Will you share parenting?

Every family is unique, and we work with you to find a parenting and custody solution for your family. We explain your options and come up with a plan that is in the best interests of the children. We also work with parenting coordinators and parental experts to provide solutions and assessments.

In an ideal situation, the parents agree to terms without court intervention and to attend mediation. Our goal is to reach an amicable settlement where the parents agree to custody decisions and a parenting schedule in a separation agreement.

We will guide you through the settlement negotiations and attend mediation to protect your interests. If necessary, we will advocate for your rights in court. We have significant courtroom experience and an exceptional track record.

A lawyer who picks up the phone

You need a lawyer who takes the time to understand your situation and goals. Someone who is available to talk to you and will reply to emails quickly. We make sure you get that level of service throughout the process, ensuring nothing slips through the cracks.

Adding complicated legal jargon to an already stressful situation isn't helpful. We'll communicate with you in plain English and save the legal language for legal documents.

Keeping costs under control

You're already dealing with a lot, and worrying about legal fees is the last thing you need. We start by weighing costs against benefits and continue to do this at every step of the process. Because we assign tasks to the right people at the right seniority and skill levels, you aren't paying higher fees unnecessarily.
